Winter Events Review

Autumn 2023 saw a great series of special events including guest Chef Peter Sidwell (see his website for regular superb recipe ideas), Coffee Expert Luke Powell, KitchenAid national demonstrator Anita Davidson.

Thanks to all of you who joined us, the last of the year was our Pre-Xmas Evening Food walk.

Wimborne is so lucky to have such a selection of impressive artisan food shops, cafes and restaurants and on what had been a very wet December day 28 guests joined our biggest food walk to date which included an in-store event.

“The whole evening was a delight – all the shops were so interesting, the staff enthusiastic and the food excellent.”

Our thanks to Nusara Thai, Fluffet’s, Chocobake, East Street Deli and Flaming Peaches Burger van who all took part and also to Minster gin and Eight Arches beer for giving us tasting samples back in the shop where John and Sally from Bell’s Famous fisheries offered Sally’s signature Haddock Chowder alongside our special cheese fondue, hot chocolate and biscuits.

The Food Walk will return in the Spring.

Product of the Month - Lekue Silicon Savarin

Made from Platinum silicon which is really flexible, the moulds are strong enough to hold your bakes when cooking or travelling and yet they are easy to push out. The savarin has a diameter of 20 cm and capacity of 1000 ml.

Top Five Christmas Sales

Just for fun, in the run up to Christmas our top five selling items this year were:

- Cake Decorations
- Mugs
- Mills
- Cutters
- Thermometers

Recipe of the Month

Debbie took one of the Lekue Savarin moulds home and used it to make this delicious ginger and banana cake. Her recipe is on the website here.

Well done to those of you who spotted the extra competition right at the end of the newsletter.

a) the five Le Creuset focus colours in our range are cerise, volcanic, nectar, azure and meringue. Of course all other colours are available but we are highlighting the product range in these.

b) We have four new lights above the till with stylish black shades.
