Robert Welch Evening review

On Thursday 16 May Sven from Robert Welch gave a fascinating insight into how Robert Welch's award winning Signature and new Professional ranges of kitchen knives and their iconic cutlery are made.

The draw for a knife sharpener was won by Paul McMahon.

This Month's Top Five Great Value Products

Five top value products this month. And yes, there are 6 items in the basket but the new mug designs are so lovely we couldn't choose between them.

1. MasterClass Sabatier Edgekeeper knives with sheath and built in knife sharpener
2. Taylors Eye silicon spatula
3. Price and Kensington Bone China mugs in bird and herb designs
4. Zeal Handy Tongs
5. Kilo Herb scissors

Veritable Herb Gardens - update

Our supplier is no longer importing the Veritable Herb Garden. We have a few Lingots left in stock but once they are gone we won't be getting any more in. They are available to buy on line at <https://www.veritable-garden.co.uk/17-lingots>

New In

The Robert Welch 17cm Deep Santoku knife is back. Designed in consultation with professional chefs this knife has a wide scalloped blade for precision slicing and dicing as well as mincing. The scallops create a pocket of air between the blade and the food, which reduces friction and helps to prevent the food from sticking to the blade allowing you to cut things more finely and precisely. Suitable for meat, fish, fruits and vegetables.

Prize Draws

Last chance to win a 4 person picnic backpack from Navigate. A great alternative to a picnic hamper or cooler bag, this holds all you need for a memorable lunch and the inner is insulated too. Click here to enter. The draw will be made on Friday 14 June.

Our second prize draw for this month is a Le Cafetière Roma Stainless Steel wrapped cafetiere, hand grinder and a sample pack of Wimborne Coffee Roasters' coffee. Click here to enter. The draw will be made on Friday 14 June.
